BOARD OF REVENUE

MADRAS

To

The Secretary to the Board of Revenue,
Madras.

P. No. 2292/38 A8 dated 13th September 1938.

Sir,

REVENUE RECOVERY - Land Revenue - Fasli 1342 to 1346 - Bellary District - Siruguppa Taluk - Bagavadi and Siruguppa villages - defaulter Sundaram Mudaliyar - Sale records - Records submitted.

An amount of Rs.91-10-9 being the arrears of land revenue relating to Faslis 1342 to 1346 was due on three fields S.Nos. 188B, 189 of Siruguppa village and S,No.662 of Bagavadi village. The lands of Siruguppa, when sold, fetched a bid of Rs.64/- in Siruguppa Tahsildars'L.S.28/47 dated 26.2.38. S.No.662 of Bagavadi village on which the arrears were also due, could not be brought to sale as it was found it was already sold in 1935 to one Swami Rao for Rs.23/- Hence another field - S,No.22 of Halekota village belonging to the defaulter was therefore brought to sale. But, as it fetched no bids the land was bought in by Government for a nominal price of one anna.

2. The lands of Siruguppa, S.Nos.188B and 189 and S.No.662 of Bagavadi village were previously hypothecated to Government for a state loan of Rs.300/- in L.IIL.823/26 dated 14.4.1927. At the time when S.No.662 of Bagavadi village was sold in 1935, it was not known that it was hypothecated to Government. This was due to the fact that the late Mr.G.Seshachallam, the then Loans Tahsildar failed to make a note of it in the Security Bond as having been hypothecated. Subsequently, Mr.Venkatasubba Ayyar the then Special Loans Tahsildar (now retired) also failed to rectify rectify the mistake. Not only the above S.Nos. but also S.No. 22 of Halekota was encumbered for co-operative arrears. Not even one field was free of encumberance. Now the Revenue Divisional Officer, Bellary reports that there is no probability of expecting better bids in the event of a resale and requests that he may be permitted to confirm the sales and submit 14 B Statements in respect of arrears of Land Revenue and Takkavi dues. The confirmation of sales means that the Takkavi arrears should be written off.

3. Doraswamy Mudaliyar, who was the original pattadar and who borrowed the amount, died and the lands were subsequently tansferred in the name of his nephew, Sundaram Mudaliyar. He is a non-resident pattadar possessing no moveables to be proceeded against. Under the circumstances I request that the Board may be pleased to permit the confirmation of the sales and the write off of the balance of Rs.195/3/5 (Takkavi dues)

4. The sale records L.S.28/47 and Tahsildar's D.Dis. 3076/35 dated 7.3.1936 are enclosed.

The difficulty in realising the loan arrear is due to the omission to note one of the security lands (S.No 662 of Bagavadi vge) in the security bond and to the failure to take due note of previous encumbrances on S.No 22 of Halekota and other lands. The Board considers that the Rev Inspr who made enquiries, the clerk who prepared the security bond and the loan order and the head clerk who passed them must be held responsible for the loss of the balance of Rs 195-3-5 to the Govt. The Coll is requested to consider the possibility of recovering the amount from the

Board's S.No. 8661-38.2 dated 20-2-39

ENCLOSURES

SPARE COPIES

The Board of Revenue in its reference cited above ordered that the Revenue Inspector who made enquiries in connection with the grant of a loan of Rs. 300/- to Doraiswmay Mudaliar.

(ii) The clerk who prepared the Security bond and the loan order.

(iii) The Head clerk who passed them must be held responsible for the loss of the balance of Rs. 195-3-5 to the Government and that the possibility of recovery of the amount from them should be considered.

The Revenue Divisional Officer Bellary who was asked to submit a detailed report in the matter states that the Revenue Inspector who ~~collected~~ conducted the enquiry was Mr. J.A. Arogyaswami pillai, the present Head clerk Revenue Divisional Office Adoni and that he is not in any way responsible for the omission of S.No. 622 of Bagavadi village in the security bond as he proposed this Survey number as one of the lands offered for security. He further reports that it is difficult to fix the identity of the clerk and the Head clerk as the Security bond does not bear any initials of any one except those of the late Tahsildar Tahsildar Sri. G. Seshachalam. With reference to the acquittance rolls the Revenue Divisional Officer has furfurnished the names of the following clerks who worked in the loans office in 1927.

1. H. Vasudeva Rao.
2. A. Achutananda Rao
3. G. Venkataswami (died)
4. M. Sundararajulu
5. B. Hanumantha Rao
6. P.H. Vedavyasa Rao.
7. Ch. Veerabhadrayya.

All are alive except No.3. The loan order, on enquiry, appears to have been written by H. Vasudeva Rao the then Acting Head clerk the loans office Bellary. He was discharged from duty as his work was found to be bad. The security bond appears to have been in the hand-writing of Karnam Krista Rao, the present Assistant Karnam of Siruguppa village.

4. The loan order and the Securtity bond were written in 1927. (i.e.,) twelve years back and the hand-writing of any man undergoes modification with the advancement of time. As such, it may not be possible now to conclusively prove that the Loan Order is in the handwriting of H. Vasudeva Rao (dismissed Head clerk of Loans office) and that the Security bond is in the hand writing of Karnam Krista Rao, (assistant Karnam Siruguppa village) as none had subscribed his initials to what he had written.

5. The Loan bond was written in Telugu by some village Officers and the loan was disbursed by Sri. G. Seshachalam, the then Special Loans Tahsildar. For several such omissions and for alleged corruption he was charged and reduced as a clerk. He retired on invalidated pension and died subsequently. In view of these facts I request that the Board may be pleased to write off the balance of Rs. 195-3-5 and to permit the confirmation of the sales as already recommended.

6. The sale record L.S. 28/47, Tahsildar's D.Dis. 3076/35 dated 7-3-35 and the loan records L.I.E 823/14-4-27 are enclosed for reference and return.

From the sale records at 'R' it is seen that the arrears fell due on the 10th April of the respective fasli and that the notices could not be served personally on the defaulters as his nephew his whereabouts were not known. The defaulter is reported to have been dead and his land transfered to this in the name of his nephew, Sundaram Mudaliy

The Coll. considers that if the sale of the lands for the land revenue arrears is confirmed, the loan arrea amounting to Rs 195-3-5 will have to be written off, as the present reputed owner of the lands (Sundaram Mudaliy has no movables to be proceeded aga

The Collr recommends that the sales already held may be confirmed now & the arrears of loan dues written off as it is practically not desirable to insist on confirmation. If the Board is inclined to grant permission to write off, the Collr may be asked to confirm the sales.

AS (Secn)

Ff 1-2 ✓ The Coll² of Bellary has submitted proposals for the writing off of loan arrears amounting to Rs 155. 3. 5 due from one Sundara Madaliyar -

2. The borrower was granted a loan of Rs 300 under the ZIX Act on 14.4.27 on the security of his lands (S nos 188 B and 189 of Sengapha village & S no 662 of Bayavadi village). He made default in the payment of land revenue relating to fasli 1342 to 1346 and the lands in Sengapha were sold in auction. They fetched a bid of Rs 64. S no 662 of Bayavadi village on which arrears were also due could not be brought to sale, as it was found that the land was already sold in 1935 to one Swamirao for Rs 23.

Ff 41-42 ✓ (R) Another field - S no 22 of Halekote village belonging to the defaulter was also sold but for want of bidders, it was bought in by the Govt for a nominal price of one anna. The Coll² reports that at the time when S no 662 of Bayavadi village was sold in 1935, it was not known that it was hypothecated to the Govt. The Loans Tahsildar (late Sri T. Seshachalam) did not note the fact in the security bond nor did his successor (Sri Venkata Subba ayyar) rectify the mistake. The Coll[r] further reports that not even one field belonging to the borrower was free from encumbrance, that the borrower died and that his lands were transferred to his nephew (Sundara Mudaliar). The latter is reported to be a non resident registered holder possessing no movables to be proceeded against. It is also stated that there is no probability of securing better bids in the event of resale of the lands. The Coll[r] recommends that he may be permitted to confirm the sales and to write off the loan amounting to Rs 195-3-5 as irrecoverable. p 1 f p 2 f para 3 – p 2 f

3. The Coll[r] in letter at p 5 f shows that out of the loan amount of Rs 300, a balance of Rs 195-3-5 is recoverable in six instalments of Rs 32-8-6 commencing from Fasli 1343 and that the instalments have not come up for collection, the instalment being suspended from year to year.

As the difficulty in realising the loan arrears is due to the omission to make one of the security lands (S no 662 of Bajavadi village) in the security bond and to the failure to take notice of the previous encumbrances on S no 22 of Kalakote and other lands, the Coll² was asked to consider the possibility of recovering the loan amount from the Revenue subordinate enquiries, the clerk who prepared the security bond and the loan order and the Head clerk who passed them, as they must be held responsible for the loss. The Coll's reply is at pp 11-13 y.

K 7-84

4. The Revenue who conducted the enquiry (Sri J. A. Arogya Swamy Nadar) is now the Head clerk of the R.D.O's office Adoni. The Coll² states that he is not in any way responsible for the omission of S no 662 of Bajavadi village in the security bond, as he proposed this S no as one of the ~~fields~~ lands offered as security for the loan. Copy of the record of enquiry sent by the Coll² shows that this is correct.

K 11 y

(V)

The Coll² also states that it is difficult to fix the identity of the clerk and Head clerk, as the security bond does not bear initials of any one except pp 11-12 y

pp 15-16 (V)

those of the late Loans Tahsr (Sh. Sesha chalam). The loan order and the security bond were written in 1927.
The coll[r] says that though they appear to have been written neatly by one H. Varadhachar, the then Asst clerk of the Loans Office, Bellary and Ramana Kuttachar, the present Asst Ramana of Siruguppa village, at the tape of time it may not be possible to conclusively prove that the security bond & the loan order is in the handwriting of the person concerned. ~~as~~ the officer responsible for the grant of the loan is now dead.

5. In the circumstances, explained above it is for orders whether the Board would accept the coll[r]s recommendation to write off the loan amount amounting to Rs. 195. 3. 5 ca, irrecoverable and permit the coll[r]
to confirm the Sale.
